Subject: certification new Waladu academic teaching units

I, as coordinator of the EU funded WALADU project, certify that the following teaching units were developed and structured at the College of Archaeology of the University of Al-Qadisiyah, within the academic years 2018/2019 and 2019/2020:

- Akkadian language;
- Arab calligraphy;
- Calligraphy and copy of the cuneiform writing;
- Early Ummayad architecture in Iraq;
- History of Ancient Mesopotamia;
- Manuscript and Islamic Paintings;

The process of developing and structuring of the new teaching units was realized according to the attached scheme.

These new courses are conducted by researchers who attended the WALADU training courses in Italy, Turkey and Germany, and they are supported by the new Archaeological library (WaLib) and laboratory (WaLab) set up in the College of Archaeology within the above-mentioned WALADU project.

Yours Faithfully,

Nicolò Marchetti

WALADU project Coordinator

Full Professor of Archaeology and History of Art of the Ancient Near East

Department of History and Cultures – University of Bologna
